South Wind Norman Douglas

South Wind is a 1917 novel by British author Norman Douglas. It is Douglas's most famous book and his only success as a novelist. It is set on an imaginary island called Nepenthe, located off the coast of Italy in the Tyrrhenian Sea, a thinly fictionalized description of Capri 's residents and visitors.

South Wind (novel) - Wikipedia

So writes Norman Douglas in his 1917 novel South Wind. The island of Nepenthe is a stand-in for Capri, and Douglas' novel is full of oddball characters, affected by the sirocco coming up from. "Viewed from the clammy deck on this bright morning, the island of Nepenthe resembled a cloud.
